Book Excerpt

"She was born in the Year of the Snake, of the Chinese zodiac, which was said to bring wisdom and creativity. Some also said that it was a year of transformation. Bella Nova had wondered if she was destined to be an artist. Her mother, Anya, was a talented calligrapher and painter, and Bella Nova had inherited her love of art. But she had also inherited her father's restless spirit, his need to explore the world."

Author Interview

Q: What inspired you to write Bella Nova Chih sien Liang?

A: "I was inspired by the stories of my own family, who immigrated from China to the United States in the early 20th century. I wanted to explore the challenges and triumphs of the immigrant experience, and Bella Nova's story was born from that exploration."

Q: Bella Nova is a complex and compelling character. How did you develop her?

A: "I spent a lot of time researching the Chinese American experience and talking to people who had lived through similar experiences. I also drew on my own experiences as a Chinese American woman to create a character who was both authentic and relatable."

Q: What do you hope readers will take away from this novel?

A: "I hope readers will come away from this novel with a deeper understanding of the Chinese American experience and the challenges and triumphs of immigration. I also hope they will be inspired by Bella Nova's journey and her resilience in the face of adversity."
