Airships

Airships are a vital part of life in the Fractured Empires setting. They are used for transportation, trade, and warfare. The Equipment Booklet provides detailed descriptions of four different types of airships, each with its own unique strengths and weaknesses. The Skystrider is a small and maneuverable airship, perfect for scouting and exploration. The Cloudstrider is a larger and more powerful airship, ideal for transporting goods and passengers. The Skyfortress is a heavily armored airship, designed for combat. And the Skycarrier is the largest and most powerful airship in the game, capable of carrying an entire army.

Mechs

Mechs are large, bipedal machines that are used for combat. They are heavily armored and armed, and they can be piloted by a single person. The Equipment Booklet provides detailed descriptions of four different types of mechs, each with its own unique abilities. The Jaeger is a light mech, designed for speed and maneuverability. The Juggernaut is a heavy mech, designed for strength and durability. The Colossus is a massive mech, designed for overwhelming firepower. And the Titan is the largest and most powerful mech in the game, capable of destroying entire armies.

Other Equipment

In addition to airships and mechs, the Equipment Booklet also provides detailed descriptions of a wide variety of other equipment, including weapons, armor, and gadgets. These items can be used to customize your characters and give them a unique edge in combat. The Equipment Booklet also includes rules for creating and using your own custom equipment.

The Fractured Empires Equipment Booklet is an essential resource for players and game masters alike. It provides detailed descriptions, stats, and artwork for over 50 different pieces of equipment, making it easy to find the perfect gear for your characters.
