Jasmine Green is a young girl with a big heart. She loves animals, and she can't stand to see them suffer. One day, Jasmine is walking home from school when she sees a group of boys teasing a piglet. The piglet is small and scared, and the boys are laughing at it and throwing rocks at it.

Jasmine's heart breaks for the piglet. She knows that she has to do something to help it. She runs over to the boys and tells them to stop. The boys are surprised to see Jasmine standing up to them, but they eventually agree to leave the piglet alone.

Jasmine takes the piglet home with her and names it Truffle. Truffle is a sweet and gentle piglet, and Jasmine quickly falls in love with it. She takes good care of Truffle, and she makes sure that it has everything it needs to be happy and healthy.

One day, Jasmine and Truffle are playing in the park when they see a group of children playing with a ball. The ball rolls away from the children and into the street. A car is coming, and the children are too scared to go after the ball.

Jasmine doesn't hesitate. She runs into the street and grabs the ball. She then throws the ball back to the children and runs to safety. The children are so grateful to Jasmine for saving their ball, and they give her a big hug.
