Synopsis

As the festive season descends upon the quaint town of Peridale, barista and amateur sleuth Lexy Baker is eagerly anticipating Christmas. The Peridale Cafe is bustling with holiday cheer, the aroma of gingerbread lattes fills the air, and the town is adorned with twinkling lights.

However, Lexy's holiday spirit is dampened when she discovers the lifeless body of Councilman Reginald Hawthorne, a prominent and well-respected figure in the community, lying beneath the town's grand Christmas tree. With the Christmas festivities in full swing, the town is shaken by this unexpected tragedy.

Determined to uncover the truth and bring justice to the victim, Lexy embarks on a perilous investigation, navigating through a web of secrets, hidden motives, and long-held grudges. As she delves deeper into the case, she encounters a cast of intriguing characters, each with their own suspicious past and connection to the victim.

With the help of her loyal friends and the town's quirky police chief, Lexy meticulously pieces together the puzzle, following every lead and analyzing each clue. As she inches closer to the truth, she realizes that the killer's identity is far from what it initially seemed.

In a thrilling climax that will keep you on the edge of your seat, Lexy unmasks the murderer, exposing their twisted plan and the shocking motive behind Councilman Hawthorne's untimely demise. Justice prevails, but not without unexpected twists and turns that will leave you breathless.
