Bob was a curious boy. He loved to explore and try new things. One day, he saw a llama at the zoo. The llama was big and fluffy, with a long neck and a funny face. Bob had never seen a llama before, so he decided to go up and say hello.

The llama looked at Bob with big, curious eyes. Bob reached out and stroked the llama's neck. The llama seemed to enjoy it, so Bob leaned in and gave the llama a big lick.

Suddenly, the llama started to spit! Bob was covered in llama spit! He ran away as fast as he could, but the llama kept spitting after him.

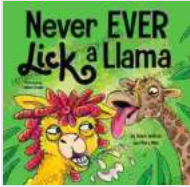

Bob learned his lesson that day: never ever lick a llama!

Never Ever Lick a Llama is a hilarious story that will make you laugh out loud. With its vibrant illustrations and clever text, this book is sure to become a favorite of children of all ages.
