One sunny day, Squeaky was exploring the backyard when she came across a group of squirrels bullying a smaller squirrel. Squeaky was outraged and immediately came to the smaller squirrel's defense. Mittens, who was watching from the window, was impressed by Squeaky's bravery and decided to join in the fight.

Together, Squeaky and Mittens chased away the bullies and rescued the smaller squirrel. The three squirrels became fast friends, and Mittens even invited Squeaky to live in her treehouse.

The three friends had many adventures together. They explored the neighborhood, played games, and even went on a camping trip. But their favorite activity was chasing each other around the treehouse.

One day, the three friends were playing in the backyard when they saw a group of dogs chasing a rabbit. The rabbit was clearly terrified, and the friends knew they had to help.

Squeaky and Mittens quickly came up with a plan. Squeaky would distract the dogs while Mittens rescued the rabbit. The plan worked perfectly, and the rabbit was safe.

The three friends were so proud of themselves for saving the rabbit. They knew that they were a team, and that together they could overcome any obstacle.

Those Darn Squirrels And The Cat Next Door is a heartwarming and hilarious story about the unlikely friendship between a squirrel and a cat. The book is full of adventure, humor, and heart, and is sure to delight readers of all ages.
