A Town Steeped in Enchantment

Castelmezzano is a town suspended in time, where cobblestone streets wind their way through centuries-old houses. The air is thick with enchanting tales and folklore, and locals speak in hushed tones about the legend that has haunted their town for generations. They whisper of a time when witches roamed the land, casting spells and weaving curses that linger to this day.

As you explore the town, you'll stumble upon ancient walls adorned with cryptic symbols and eerie faces. Legends say that these are the marks left by the witches, warnings to those who dare to cross their path. The town's enchanting beauty belies a darker undercurrent, a sense of mystery that permeates every nook and cranny.

The Witch Is Dead: A Haunting Tale of Intrigue

'The Witch Is Dead' unravels the tantalizing mystery surrounding the legend of Castelmezzano. Author Martina Marzullo captivates readers with her vivid storytelling and meticulous research, transporting you to a time when witches and their magic were a reality.

At the heart of the novel lies the enigmatic figure of Violante, a powerful witch accused of casting a curse upon the town. As the story unfolds, you'll witness the rise and fall of Violante, her struggle against prejudice and the forces of darkness that seek to destroy her.
